The authors will share insights about the Wilsons and speak about what it is like to research and write about the lives and impact of the A.A. cofounder and Al-Anon cofounder. Excerpts will be read from the new publication—the first of its kind as it focuses on the courtship, marriage, and collaboration of the Wilsons.

After the authors present, special guests and friends will share more about the Wilsons.

We will celebrate the wedding anniversary of Lois and Bill, who were married in 1918. We will recognize that the couple's fifty-third wedding anniversary was also the date of Bill's passing.

The two live sessions will have the same content.

Audience Q&A will follow.

The event will be approximately 90 minutes.

Only those who register in advance will receive the event login as space is limited.

To ensure that you login to the event on the correct date and time for your location. Use a free time difference calculator on such websites as <https://24timezones.com/difference>

Optional donations of any amount are encouraged when registering for the event to support the operations and preservation of Stepping Stones, the historic home and archive of the Wilsons.

Please share this event announcement with friends.
